

Family Strengthening Workers Mission Statement

We are committed to delivering effective, professional, quality services to Aboriginal children, youth and their families.

We appreciate the cultural diversity of those receiving our services. Employees treat families and individuals with dignity and respect.

We believe that children grow and develop best in a family atmosphere that is accepting and supportive towards their strengths.

We provide a culturally sensitive approach utilizing Aboriginal personnel.

Philosophy:

Family Strengthening Workers are committed to provide centered care that will strengthen and support the family unit:

Children are entitled to be protected from abuse, neglect and threat of harm.

The cultural spiritual beliefs and value systems of families must be respected and accommodated to the best of our ability.

Families empowered to take charge of their own lives.
